A. It's up to you to decide whether you want to steep yourself in the past, step into the future, learn about the living world or enjoy film and theatre. There's something for everyone in London — art-lovers, culture vultures, thrill-seekers and anyone with a passion for history. The city boasts a wealth of theatres and museums and collections — as much culture as your feet can bear! So even if you have been to the city many times before, there's something new to view and somewhere different to go in a city full of surprises.

B. London's shops cover the complete spectrum of fashion — from traditional, high-class tailoring, through top designer names, trend-setting street fashion to retro, antique and period clothes. You can buy yourself wild fashion or exclusive tailoring; the latest ideas or the most traditional. From the shopper's point of view London really is 'Absolutely fabulous, darling!' London's 30,000 shops offer the most extraordinary choice, quality and value. Come and enjoy yourself!

C. Over 5,800 different restaurants and cuisine from more than 60 different countries await you in Britain's capital. Come to London and eat your great meal from all the best cuisines all around the world! The experience of eating out in London is reaching new heights, with restaurants opening every week and some of the best-known names in cuisine to work here.

D. London comes alive at dark. If New York is the city that never sleeps, London doesn't doze much either! Night-time London offers a staggering range of things to see and places to go. Time Out, London's weekly guide to what's on, will give you all the details you need — under useful headings like classical music, opera, jazz/funk, garage, house.

E. Hotels in London vary from some of the greatest and most luxurious establishments in the world to bed and breakfasts and humble hostels — with everything in between. About 1,000 hotels of all different price ranges are spread all over the city, with the great concentration in the West End. But if you take advantage of London's extensive public transport system and stay out of the centre it will be less expensive.

Living in a city

Living in a city has both advantages and disadvantages. On the plus side, it is often A_____ to find job, and there is usually a choice of public transport, so you don't need to own a car. Also, there are B_____ of interesting things to do and places to see. For example, you can eat in good restaurants, visit museums, and go to the theatre and to concerts. What is more, when you want to relax, you can usually find a park where you can feed the ducks or just sit on a park bench and read a book. All in all, city life is full of bustle and variety and C_____ will never feel really bored.

However, for every plus there is a minus. For one thing, you might have a job, but unless it is very well-paid, you will not be able to afford many of the things that there are to do, because living in a city is often quite expensive. It is particularly difficult to find good, cheap accommodation. What is more, public transport D_____ sometimes crowded and dirty, particularly in the rush hours, and even the parks can E_____ very crowded, especially on Sundays when it seems that every city dweller is looking for some open space and green grass.
